

GRAND MASTER VINCENT KOH

Singapore Feng
Shui Centre,

SINGAPORE

Grand Master Vincent Koh developed an interest in Feng Shui during his long and successful career in the building industry since 1967. Over time, many of his clients began to seek his advices about Feng Shui.

After many years of practices in Feng Shui and in 1997, Grand Master Koh began sharing his knowledge in public seminars and started his teaching in collaboration with Singapore Polytechnic's Continuing Education Centre Department. He was awarded Singapore Polytechnic's "Continuing Education Award" in 2003, 2005 and 2007.

Grand Master Vincent Koh carries out research, teaches, mentors and provides professional Feng Shui related services to both individuals and corporate clients. His vast knowledge and experience in buildings and interior design also value-added his professional practice. Through the years, he has written five books on Feng Shui, and trained over hundreds of graduates worldwide. Many of his students are successful professionals.

All courses Grand Master Vincent Koh taught via Singapore Feng Shui Centre were endorsed by the International Feng Shui Association (IFSA), bringing the art and science of Feng Shui to an International platform. In 2009, he was conferred the title 'Grand Master' by IFSA at the International Feng Shui Convention.

Grand Master Vincent Koh has since retired from his practices at the beginning of 2022.
