

AMAZING POWER OF BALANCE

FENG SHUI AND THE DANCE OF YIN & YANG

THE 21ST INTERNATIONAL FENG SHUI CONVENTION
15 & 16 NOVEMBER 2025 | PHNOM PENH, CAMBODIA

Amazing Power Of Balance: Feng Shui And The Dance Of Yin & Yang

Yin and Yang represent two fundamental forces coexisting in the universe. Yin is passive, dark, and feminine, while Yang is active, light, and masculine. Rooted in Chinese philosophy, this concept describes the interconnected and complementary nature of opposites.

This duality — where balance creates harmony — forms the foundation of many branches of classical Chinese metaphysics. As an ancient saying goes: “All things carry Yin and embrace Yang, achieving harmony through the flow of Qi” (万物负阴而抱阳，冲气以为和). But how can we practically achieve this balance, where the whole becomes greater than the sum of its parts?

At IFSC 2025, we will explore how Yin and Yang can be effectively integrated and harmonized across various disciplines of Chinese metaphysics.

Join us as we engage in this dynamic interaction — A dance of energy, equilibrium, and transformation.

Moderators: Master Naly Long & Senior Master Goh Guan Leong

| 10:30-11:30 | Opening SpeakersGrand Master Tan Khoon Yong &amp; Senior Master Goh Guan Leong  | Balancing Yin and Yang: Harmonizing Tradition ModernityAn ancient saying states, “All things carry Yin and embrace Yang, achieving harmony through the flow of Qi” (万物负阴而抱阳，冲气以为和). How can we balance Yin and Yang, tradition and modern life? In this engaging session, Grand Master Tan Khoon Yong and Senior Master Goh Guan Leong will share how Feng Shui guides us toward harmony. They will also shed light on the design philosophy behind Yin Paradise, a prominent memorial park in Cambodia. By examining the site’s Feng Shui configuration, they will illustrate how its connection to cosmic forces creates a serene final resting place and brings blessings to descendants. Join Grand Master Tan and Senior Master Goh as they discover the delicate balance of Yin and Yang.   |
| 11:30-12:15 | Feature SpeakerMaster Naly Long   | Secret techniques of integrating advanced Yin Feng Shui with Yang Feng ShuiDiscover the secret techniques of integrating advanced Yin Feng Shui formulas with Yang Feng Shui. These combined methods are highly effective, delivering rapid results and highly utilised by millionaires and their descendants. In particular, the once-hidden formulas used in Imperial Tombs, techniques historically reserved for kings, high-ranking officials, and elites will be revealed. It is undeniable that certain inauspicious luck cycles in Bazi charts may bring severe misfortune, even death. The proper remedies to counter such challenges will be clearly illustrated. Additionally, there will be a detailed explanation on how to set up a Sheng Ji (living tomb) correctly, along with the essential do’s and don’ts to ensure successful results while avoiding hidden dangers.   |

With real-life case studies and practical applications, this session will offers a deeper understanding of core Feng Shui methods rooted in Yin Feng Shui.  |

Day 2 – Convention, 16 November 2025 (Sunday)

|             |  |  |
|-------------|--|--|
| 08:00-09:00 | Arrival, Registration, Coffee and Networking |  |
| 09:00-09:45 | Grand Master Raymond Lo               | I Ching – The Knowledge of Yin and YangThe foundation of I Ching Divination lies in the Eight Trigrams, created by Fu Hsi from the Taichi, Yin and Yang, the fundamental law of the universe. These trigrams, known as the Early Heaven Bagua, represent natural phenomena through symbolic Yin and Yang lines. More than ancient philosophy, they also form the basis of binary code that inspired modern computer science. In this session, Grand Master Raymond Lo will delve into the profound meaning of Taichi, how Fu Hsi derived the trigrams, and how these symbols are applied in divination to interpret events and forecast the future, illustrated with real-life examples.  |
| 09:45-10:30 | Master Hitoshi Kawamoto               | Connecting with Yin and Yang (陰陽化氣)Join Master Hitoshi Kawamoto on a captivating journey into the world of Feng Shui, exploring a unique space shaped by ancient wisdom and designed to harmonise the energies of Yin and Yang dwellings. Discover how these powerful forces come together to create balance, vitality, and harmony in our living environments.   |
| 10:30-11:00 | Coffee / Tea Break                           |  |
| 11:00-11:45 | Grand Master Stephen Skinner          | Using the Correct Feng Shui Formula in the Right Place - Part 2Feng Shui features a wide array of formulae, which can be surprising to newcomers to this ancient art. Just as a builder uses different tools for different parts of a house, a Feng Shui practitioner applies specific formulae to various aspects of the environment. The key lies in knowing which formula suits which space, for instance, Flying Star formulae assess the energy of interior spaces, while San He formulae are better suited for outdoor elements like gardens and water features. Similarly, Eight Mansion formulae focus on door placements and complement rather than conflict with Flying Star principles. Join Grand Master Stephen Skinner as he discuss the application of the right Feng Shui formula in the right context. |
| 11:45-12:30 | Senior Master Yap Boh Chu             | The Origins and the Effect of Yin Feng ShuiIn Feng Shui, we often speak of Yin and Yang as they apply to homes and workplaces, yet Feng Shui itself is divided into Yang Feng Shui for the living and Yin Feng Shui for the deceased. As stated in the ancient text 葬書 (Zangshui) may provide a hint: 鬼福及人 (Guǐ fú jí rén), The ghost will give blessing to the living, highlighting how proper Yin Feng Shui can bring blessings to the living. However, when it is done incorrectly, it may cause great misfortune or even death, not only to descendants but in some circumstances the Feng Shui Master as well. Yin Feng Shui not for the faint-hearted!  |

| 13:45-14:30  | Master Vijayal Sunassee   | The Energies and Afflictions of the Yang Fire Horse 2026In 2026, the Year of the Yang Fire Horse begins on February 4th, ushering in dynamic energy and potential challenges. This talk will delve into the powerful interaction between the Heavenly Stem and Earthly Branch of the Year Pillar, followed by an in-depth analysis of the Flying Star Chart, Tai Sui, 3 Shan Shas, and Sui Po star. Attendees will learn how these energies shape both personal and professional realms, and how to harness the vibrant yet volatile fire element for progress and transformation. By understanding the interplay of these ancient Chinese metaphysical systems, we can navigate the year with greater awareness, aligning our actions with auspicious energies and avoiding pitfalls. Join Master Yal to explore the transformative potential of 2026. |
| 14:30-15:00  |  | Coffee / Tea Break   |
| 15:00-16:00  | Closing SpeakerMaster Mas Kehardtham   | Revolutionizing the Four Pillars: A New TheoryJoin Master Mas from Thailand as he introduces a groundbreaking re-interpretation of the Four Pillars of Destiny, challenging centuries-old traditions. Instead of beginning the astrological year on February 4–5 with the Tiger month, he proposes starting it on December 21–22, aligned with the Winter Solstice and the Rat month, the true beginning of the zodiac cycle. This revised system synchronizes the start of the year and month more cohesively, echoing the structure of the modern calendar. Through compelling case studies using celebrity birth charts, Master Mas demonstrates a deeper accuracy in forecasting life paths and turning points. This eye-opening presentation invites attendees to rethink how we interpret time, destiny, and personal evolution.                  |
