MASTER AYUKA- AKATSUKIHA

Alchemist32, Japan

From childhood, Master Ayuka-Akatsukiha possessed a unique perspective that set her apart from those around her. Her early experiences in a Buddhist kindergarten, followed by her service as a miko (shrine maiden) at local shrines, ignited a lifelong fascination with the metaphysical world. Her academic journey was equally diverse; she studied Christianity while attending college in both Japan and the United States, ultimately graduating from the English Department at East China Normal University.

Through her exploration of diverse traditions, she reached a profound realization: that destiny and luck are often shaped by the circumstances of our birth. This insight inspired her to dedicate herself to the rigorous study of Esoteric Buddhism, Kazudama, Tarot, I Ching, and astrology. Today, she is a dedicated student of Grandmaster Raymond Lo of IFSA. Together, they have traveled extensively across Asia and Europe, sharing their knowledge and insights with a global audience.
